Conservation Through Community

The Rensselaer Plateau is:

- 118,000 acres
- 5th largest forested region in NY
- Home to 8,000 people
- 500 million years old
- 90% forested
- 90% privately owned
- A US Forest Legacy Area
- Amazing!

PLATEAU

*Some things, once gone,
cannot be replaced*

Rensselaer Plateau Forests
Provide:

-  Enough clean water for thousands of families
-  Habitat for wildlife
-  Healthy family activities & recreation
-  Locally grown forest products
-  Hunting and fishing
-  Scenic Beauty

Act Today!

As forests are broken into smaller areas these benefits are at risk. With your help, many future generations will continue to enjoy the Rensselaer Plateau.

Conservation is a gift to our children

Working cooperatively with the community, RPA listens, inspires, leads, & gets results.

The Rensselaer Plateau Alliance (RPA) works with the community to promote and facilitate the conservation of the Plateau's forests and important wildlife areas. An alliance of diverse organizations and individuals, we share a common vision that 100 years from now the Plateau remains a large forest that still provides enough clean water for thousands of people, habitat for wildlife and many other benefits.

Your support is critical to achieving our goals:

- ♣ Conserve 18,000 acres of forest by 2018
- ♣ Create a regional trail system by 2018
- ♣ Establish a Community Forest: a public demonstration forest for recreation, education & forestry training
- ♣ Provide quality educational workshops and events for the public & landowners
- ♣ Increase organizational capacity
